

REPORTING A SERIOUS INJURY OR ILLNESS TO CAL/OSHA

Every employer shall report immediately by telephone to the nearest District Office of the Division of Occupational Safety & Health any serious injury or illness, or death of an employee occurring in a place of employment or in connection with any employment.

WHAT QUALIFIES?

Serious injury or illness means:

Any injury or illness occurring in a place of employment, or in connection with any employment, which requires inpatient hospitalization for more than 24 hours for other than medical observation, OR in which an employee suffers a loss of any member of the body or any serious degree of permanent disfigurement, but does not include any injury or illness or death caused by the commission of a Penal Code violation, except the violation of Section 385 of the Penal Code, or an accident on a public street or highway.

WHEN TO REPORT?

Immediate means:

As soon as practically possible but not longer than 8 hours after the employer knows—or with diligent inquiry would have known—of the serious injury or illness. Report by phone 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

If the employer can demonstrate that exigent circumstances exist, the time frame for the report may be made no longer than 24 hours after the incident.

The employer means:

Someone in a management or supervisory capacity.

WHAT TO REPORT?

- Time and date of accident
- Employer's name, address and telephone number
- Name and job title of person reporting the accident
- Site address of accident/event
- Name of person to contact at site of accident
- Name and address of injured employee(s)
- Nature of injury
- Location where injured person was moved to
- List and identity of other law enforcement agencies present at the site of accident
- Description of accident and whether the accident scene or instrumentality has been altered
